Born to Korean parents in Hawai'i, I joined my family's culinary journey, which evolved from a Hawaiian-style Korean BBQ shack in North Shore to a successful sushi business in Utah, serving companies like Vivint, Adobe and Ancestry. In 2018, we opened Utah's first All You Can Eat Korean BBQ and Sushi restaurant, featuring state-of-the-art grills and authentic ingredients, many sourced directly from South Korea. With locations now in Orem, West Valley City, Roosevelt and more to come, we remain committed to homemade sides, sauces, locally sourced ingredients and ingredients sourced directly from South Korea.
